

Comparison of the compositions of low-Ti mare basalts with those of the most abundant terrestrial basalts—mid-ocean ridge (MORB), ocean island (OIB), and continental flood (CFB). Each set of compositions is projected against appropriate olivine-saturated low-pressure liquidus boundaries calculated by the algorithms presented by Longhi (1991).