

MINERAL EVOLUTION

MINERALS OVER TIME

Dark-colored uranium minerals occur in roll-front ore deposits, formed when U-bearing solutions encounter reducing, organic-rich material in terrestrial sediments. Such deposits formed only in the last 400 million years, since the rise of land plants. Area shown is 3 meters wide.