

One-dimensional seismic preliminary reference Earth model (PREM) of Dziewonski and Anderson (1981). The Moho, at 6-40 km depth, is too shallow and thin to be seen in this figure. The original PREM model has a discontinuity at 670 km depth, but more-recent studies put it at 660 km.